Stray Leaves 1973

Alma Mater

We sing to thee Mount Dora

We honor thee forever

Far from thy walls or in thy halls

We shall forsake thee never.

We Hail thee, Alma Mater

Thy memories we shall cherish

Wherever we may stray

Our hearts are thine always.

We began on a clean sheet of paper which was on top of reams of paper we had already filled with words.

We wrote of what we hoped would be coming, when it came, of what it was, when it was gone, of what we wished it had been
...

of our striving — we felt as we tried, the ache of joy

we felt as we won, of the ache of pain we felt as we lost . . .

the happiness given and shared and of the sadness experienced, we wrote of our return to equilibrium that we eventually experienced . . .

Our hopes, fears, dreads,
and of all our thoughts bouncing back and forth between these extremes.

Of new loves as we discovered them and
of old ones as we outgrew them and of the loves that remained a part of us . . .

We wrote of our growth without realizing we were growing; only noting the evidences

Dedication

Friendship in its truest sense is next to love. This true friend is someone who inspires us to do our best. She is the outstretched hand beckoning us to strive for the best. The friendly smile and the encouraging words that make bleak days seem a little better. We, the Stray Leaves Staff of 1973, dedicate this annual to a true friend . . .

Mrs. Bobbie Clement

Academics

PRINCIPAL MR. TOM SANDERS

We face a life
filled with challenges,
a world in need of commitment.

Some of us see things which we know should be - yet they are not.

Some see things which should not be - yet they are.

Why is this so - why do we allow this to be?

Shall we allow ourselves to be defeated by irresponsibility,
ignorance,
weakness,
apathy?

Where are those we need
with dedication,
knowledge,
strength,
concern?

The distant drummer calls us -

Are we ready?

- T. E. Sanders

IF

IF YOU CAN KEEP your head when all about you Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream--and not make dreams your master;
If you can think--and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with wornout tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings--nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run-- Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a Man, my son!

In Memoriam

A sepia-toned photograph of a body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, under a cloudy sky. In the foreground on the right, there is a dark, vertical post, likely part of a pier or dock. The water shows some ripples and reflections. The sky is filled with soft, diffused light from the clouds.
